Guide to Grace Alone Doodling Handouts

Since some students learn best while being able to doodle, I hope these handouts can offer them a way to concentrate while working on the “Five Solas” and Small Catechism lessons. (I have been that student myself!) The focus offered by doodling or coloring is especially helpful to students with ADHD & related conditions. The phrases used are sometimes taken from Grace Alone, and sometimes from parts of Luther’s Small Catechism explanations. If there is demand, I may be able to complete pages for all 38 lessons in Grace Alone. To provide feedback, please email gracealone21c@gmail.com.
